25X1 8. [] Talked with William Lowell and Ralph Hutto, of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, concerning the final printing of the translations of Mr. Helms' testimony on Communist Forgeries. They expect the printed copies to be available within ten days to two weeks. I also talked with Richard Nathan, in Senator Kenneth B. Keating's office, about the hearings. Nathan has made an arrangement with Lowell for the Senator to send copies of the translations to the foreign language publications in the New York area. (We are to supply a suggested list of publications to the Subcommittee.) Nathan is interested in knowing how many New York publications are on this list. He said he thought the Senator would want to get the maximum possible coverage on publications of this sort within the state of New York. [] CA Staff, is sending 25X1 a complete list to us.) The list will then be forwarded to Mr. Lowell.

25X1 9. [] David Martin, on Senator Thomas J. Dodd's staff, called and said that the source of the documents which he had received and which were allegedly seized on [] 25X1 [] 25X1 Martin said he had seen [] on several occasions including two visits in Washington and one in Paris. I told Martin that I would pass this on to the people who had requested it and that they might like to discuss this further with him. In connection with the CI Staff comment on these documents, Martin said his reaction was the same as that of our people. Martin added that Senator Dodd expected to be out of town for approximately three weeks and, therefore, would not be available for lunch with Mr. McCone during that time. (I have passed on to [] the information regarding [] 25X1

25X1 10. [] In response to a request from the CIA Library which had received numerous calls on the matter, contacted Maurine E. Dantale, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, concerning the question of whether the Committee publishes a printed report of confirmation hearings. Miss Dantale advised that although such a report is possible in theory, to her knowledge the Committee has never published one. The Library was so advised.
